RE: AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION OF THE SYDNEY FLYING SQUADRON LTD ('the Club')

Dear Club Member

The Club’s current Constitution was revised some years ago to reflect current changes to the Registered Clubs Act 1976.

1. It has recently been brought to the Club’s attention that there have been amendments to the Registered Clubs Act relating to the election of Board Members which shall require amendment of the Clubs Constitution in order to bring it in line with the requirements of the Act.

2. S 30 of the Registered Clubs Act provides for the election of the Board that must now be:
   i) Annually
   ii) Biennially or
   iii) Triennially in accordance with Schedule 4 of the Act.

We enclose a copy of S 30 and Schedule 4 of the Act for your benefit.

3. We note that the Clubs current Constitution provides for election of Board members for a period of two years with half of the members to be elected annually (refer cl 37 of the Constitution). Clearly this is not in line with the current legislation and the Board has rightfully pointed out the need for amendment.

4. The Board has considered all of the options available under the Registered Clubs Act and has opted to recommend the third option (triennial) as being the best suited for the proper governance of the Club.

5. The proposed amendment provides for the election of the Board for three years. At the first AGM (i.e.; the upcoming AGM) the board shall be determined by dividing it into three separate groups (as nearly as possible into three equal groups), which shall be determined by drawing lots. Each group shall be known as Group 1, 2 or 3 which shall hold office for 1, 2 or 3 years respectively. All subsequent meetings shall elect Directors for a period of three years, unless disqualified.

6. Any amendment of the Constitution will need to be by Special Resolution (i.e. 75%) of the members of the Club eligible to vote at a General Meeting.

7. The Club has engaged Gary Cassim and Assoc. Solicitors and Attorneys to review the Constitution and suggest appropriate amendments. The suggested amendments are to be made to clauses 37, 39, 40 and 47 of the Constitution in accordance with the attached Special Resolution document.

The resolution will be made prior to the Board election at the AGM and will come into effect immediately.

Once the resolution has been made by the members in general meeting, Notice of the Amendment will need to be lodged with ASIC so it can form part of the public record.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Rules of registered clubs

30 Rules of registered clubs

(1) The rules of a registered club shall be deemed to include the following rules:

(a) Except as provided by paragraphs (a1) and (a2), the governing body of the club responsible for the management of the business and affairs of the club is to be elected:

(i) annually, or

(ii) if a rule of the club so provides--biennially, or

(iii) if a rule of the club so provides--in accordance with Schedule 4, at an election in respect of which the full members only of the club (or a subclass of full members determined by a rule of the kind referred to in subsection (9)) are entitled to vote.

(a1) If the regulations so provide, any election under paragraph (a) is to be in accordance with Schedule 4.

(a2) If the regulations so provide, the members of the club who are entitled to vote at an election of the governing body of the club are such members (or class of members) of the club as may be specified in the regulations for the purposes of this paragraph.

(b) Except as provided by paragraph (b1), a person shall not hold office as a member of the governing body of the club unless the person is a full member of the club.

(b1) The governing body of the club may include, at any one time, no more than such number of persons (whether or not full members of the club) as may be prescribed by the regulations who are appointed, in accordance with the regulations, by the elected members of the governing body of the club.

(c) The governing body of the club shall hold a meeting at least once in each month of the year and minutes of all proceedings and resolutions of the governing body shall be kept and entered in a book provided for the purpose.

(d) A person shall not:

REGISTERED CLUBS ACT 1976 - SCHEDULE 4

SCHEDULE 4 – Rules for election to governing body for term of 3 years

(Section 30)

1 Definitions

In this Schedule:

"general meeting" means a meeting of the members of the club at which members of the governing body are to be elected.

"triennial rule" means the rule of the club that provides for the election of members of the governing body in accordance with this Schedule.

"year" means the period between successive general meetings.

3 First general meeting under triennial rule

(1) The members elected to the governing body at the first general meeting at which the triennial rule applies shall be divided into 3 groups.

(2) The groups:

   (a) shall be determined by drawing lots, and

   (b) shall be as nearly as practicable equal in number, and

   (c) shall be designated as group 1, group 2 and group 3.

(3) Unless otherwise disqualified, the members of the governing body:

   (a) in group 1 shall hold office for 1 year, and

   (b) in group 2 shall hold office for 2 years, and

   (c) in group 3 shall hold office for 3 years.

4 Subsequent general meetings

At each general meeting held while the triennial rule is in force (other than the first such meeting) the number of the members required to fill vacancies on the governing body shall be elected and shall, unless otherwise disqualified, hold office for 3 years.

5 Casual vacancies

(1) A person who fills a casual vacancy in the office of a member of the governing body elected in accordance with this Schedule shall, unless otherwise disqualified, hold office until the next succeeding general meeting.

(2) The vacancy caused at a general meeting by a person ceasing to hold office under subclause (1) shall be filled by election at the general meeting and the person elected shall, unless otherwise disqualified, hold office for the residue of the term of office of the person who caused the casual vacancy initially filled by the person who ceased to hold office at the general meeting.

6 Re-election

A person whose term of office as a member of the governing body under the triennial rule expires is not for that reason ineligible for election for a further term.

7 Revocation of triennial rule

(1) If the triennial rule is revoked:

(a) at a general meeting—all the members of the governing body cease to hold office, or

(b) at a meeting other than a general meeting— all the members of the governing body cease to hold office at the next succeeding general meeting, and an election shall be held at the meeting to elect the members of the governing body.

(2) The triennial rule cannot be revoked by a club if the rule is taken to apply to the club pursuant to a regulation made for the purposes of section 30 (1) (a1).
