RACE ABANDONED TODAY

With average windspeed on Sydney harbour over 25 kts and gusting to over 30 kts and expected to increase throughout the day, the sailing committee has decided that the race today is to be abandoned.

The first heat of the Australian Championships will be postponed to a later date – possibly the 31st January. Stay tuned and stay safe.